

“I quit smoking. Now I’m saving a lot more than money.”

The cost of my habit kept going up and up, and so did the damage to my health. I was coughing, out of breath and sick way too much. Now I feel ten times better. I have more money in my pocket and, as my doctor told me, more years to live. And you can't put a price on that.

Live Like Your Life Depends On It.